

Richard M. Kirby, M.D.

Dr. Kirby was born and raised in Seattle. He attended Stanford University, where, as a junior, he was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. In medical school at the University of Washington, he was elected to the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society and was #1 in his class. After his orthopedic residency at the UW, Dr. Kirby was trained in shoulder evaluation and treatment at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, NYC. His practice is now focused on shoulder problems, he is committed to the importance of each patient.

Special Surgical Interests and Extensive Training

Dr. Kirby had specialty training in the shoulder with Dr. Charles Neer II in New York City and has extensive experience in the treatment of all shoulder problems.

Education

Pre-Medical Education: Stanford University
Medical School: University of Washington
Internship/Residency: University of Washington
Fellowship: Shoulder Surgery, Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, New York, N.Y. with Dr. Charles Neer II

Associations/Organizations/Societies

Board Certified, American Board of Orthopedic Surgery
Fellow, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons
Puget Sound Chapter of the Western Orthopedic Association, Past President
Northwestern Medical Association, Past President
Washington State Orthopedic Association

About Dr. Kirby

Dr. Kirby lives in Seattle with his wife whom he met in Junior High School. They have two grown daughters. He has a passion for windsurfing and he spends much of his recreation time in Hood River, Oregon. He also enjoys skiing, wakesurfing, stand-up paddleboarding, and photography. He and his wife have three beloved Bernese Mountain Dogs.

Orthopedic Physician Associates
601 Broadway • Seattle, WA 98122
T 206.386.2600 F 206.622.1644
www.opaortho.com

OPAortho